MOPES OF A PRACEPUL SOLUTION OF THE TROUBLE VANISHING.

Action of Gov. Smith which Looks as Though the Posionists would Disregard the De-cision of the Supreme Judicial Court. Boston, Jan. 16.-A special despatch from Augusta to the Herald says: "The whole aspect of affairs has changed, and the hopes of a peaceable solution of the dispute by the decision of the Supreme Court are to the winds by the action taken by the Fusionists to-night. Soon after the ints of decision were received from Bangor the leading Fusionists had a consultation with Gov. Smith and his staff, and before 10 o'clock the order relieving Gen. Chamberlain was is-

This order was taken to Gen. Chamberlain by Gens Folsom and Black of the Governor's staff. The General received it and replied that he would return his answer in the morning. Thus the matter rosts. From what Gen. Cham-beriain has said, it is easy to infer what action he is likely to take in the matter.

Orders have been sent to the commanding officer in every military company in the State, signed by Joseph L. Smith, announcing that Chamberiain is relieved from command, and directing them to obey no orders except from

It is likely that Smith will neglect no means be as little inclined to yield as their opponents. The position of Gen. Chamberlain is most unenviable. It is believed the affair will eventuate by noon to-morrow, but in what manner it is impossible to predict.

SLAUGHTERED BY INDIANS.

rin's Apaches and All of them Killed. WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 .- Brig.-Gen. Ord has forwarded to the War Department a letter written by Lieut. George W. Baylor, commanding a detachment of Company C of the Frontier Bataillon, Texas Volunteers, which gives a detailed account of the outrages committed by Apache Indians, under Chief Victoria, soon after Mojor Morrow's pursuit of the band into Mexico. The letter says:

"The Indians, probably 200 in number, came down about fifty miles due west of Ysleta, Tex., and camped in the Candelaria Mountains, a group of peaks, surrounded by open plains. They had splendid water, grass, and plenty of game, and probably intended to winter, but a party of fifteen Mexicans, the best citizens of Carisal, finding a trail, followed it, and were led into an ambuscade and killed. The scene of the conflict was perfectly horrible. I saw in one little narrow parapet, which the beleasquered Mexicans had hastly thrown up, seven men piled up in a space six feet by seven. The Ladians had shown great cunning, as they have through all this campaign. The trail passed a low place between, and commanded by, three rocky peaks. The Mexicans were fired upon from one side just as they reached the crest of the mountains. They had evidently dismounted and run into the rocks on the opposite side, when the Indians began killing the horses that the Mexicans had lied, and opened fire on them from nearly overhead and from a peak out on one side. They were all killed. A letter written by them asking for help was found outside of their broastworks, and near the bodies of two men, who had evidently attempted to escape, but were riddled by balls. Thirty-five more men, nearly the entire fighting force of Carisal, went out to look for their kindred, and the Indians so managed as to drive them into the same sinughter pen, and eleven of them were killed near the same spot. Three ran some distance, and their bodies were not found. We buried twenty-six, and there are still three missing. We found ten sandles of the dead men hidden in the rocks. The muzzle-loading guns and swords were all broken, showing that Victoria is well supplied with arms. The Mexican citizens were very grateful for our assistance, and offered to join us any time the Indians came here, so that we might make a good stand-off fight. party of fifteen Mexicans, the best citizens of Carisal, finding a trail, followed it, and were led

THE NEW CABINET OF FRANCE

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The Ministerial statement was read in the Chambers to-day. It is to the affect that the change in the Cabinet does not indicate the abandonment of the prudent policy, which is the most suitable to the internal affairs of France, but that it indicates that France may necessary reforms and successive improve secessary reforms and successive improvements. The Government will apply itself to the realization of these reforms without presipitation or vaciliation, and it relies upon the snergetic support of the Chambers. It says swents have raised a certain number of questions which cannot be left in suspense without injuring the interests of the country. For each one of these the Government intends to bring forward a solution. This declaration was much sheered by the Left.

M. de Baudry-d'Asson, member for the Vendee, in the course of his attack on the Ministry in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, said that the Government, being in a state of political bankruptey, the motto of "Liberty, equality, and fraternity," should be replayed by "Servility, rapacity, and iniquity." For this language the vote of consure was passed on him.

At Olympia, Tacoma, Port Townsend, Steilacoom, Suchimiah, and several mill ports, puch damage has been done. A clerk in the store of Eara Meeker at Puyeliup, on Wednesday, minht, started suit to take some provisions to a destitute family, and setting lost, perished in the snow. His body was found next plorning. A man named Mason of Portiand started from Calama on hoot over the Northern Facilic Railway for Facoma. His bedy was found on Souday near Yelm station, standing erect in the snow, which reached up to his waist.

The Case of Matthew Daly.

Matthew Daly, the old New York merchant who is endeavoring to have set aside the judgment ob mined by detault against him in the Supreme Court in samed by detault against him in the Suprems Court in Brooklyn, declaring him a lunatic, and appointing his pointin-law William S. Latimber, a committee of his estate, and his son livery Daly, the actor a committee of his person, was on Thursday ready with ten witnesses, physicians and business men to show that he is or sound mind and able to take care of his property Mr. Horace B. Claffin was one of these witnesses. The Commissioners were not ready, and the examination was edicurred for a week. Mr. Daly said to the reporter that he did not wish, in the testimony his gave, to reflect upon the integrity and good motives either of Mr. Daly, the actor, or Mr. Latimbers his son-indaw. He said that he had recently signed a paper to this effect for them.

POLICEMAN NUGBRY'S ORANGES.

The Jury Still Out, but Sald to Stand Right to Four for Acquittal. Policeman John Nugent's face lost some thing of its smiling completency yesterday as his trial for complicity in the Manhattan Bank robbery neared its end, and at times he ap-peared anxious and ill at case. The introduction of evidence in regard to an alibi was con-

Second avenue—he owns the house there—testi-fied that he was Chairman of the Board of Registry of his polling district, in October, 1878. On the evening of the 26th of October-Registry of his polling district, in October. 1878. On the evening of the 26th of October—the bank was robbed early on the morning of the 27th—he called upon Nugent, who appeared to be siek. It was shortly after 9 o'clock—the Board of Registry was closed at 9 o'clock—when he entered, and he stayed until nearly 11:20 o'clock. Mrs. Nugent, and Miss Mulligan, her sister, were there. Nugent got up from his bed about this time, and, partly dressing himself, lay down on the lounge in the sitting-room.

As he, the witness, was quitting the sitting room, Andrew J. Lyons, the Brooklyn ex-constable and florist, entered. Mr. Kretz, Mr. Russell said, "are you aware of the anxiety that was entertained yesterday by Court, jury and counsel as to your whereabouts?"

"I did not know of it until I read the newspapers this morning." Kretz replied. "I was hungry and went away.

"You timed your disappearance well. You disappeared, I believe, just after the little scene that occurred when Nugent's sister-inlaw did away with the alibi business by flatly contradleting Mr. Lyons?"

"I don't know anything about that. I left because I was hungry," was Kretz's curt answer. Other witnesses were called to corroborate Lyons and Miss Mulligan, and then Sergeant Thompson of the Twenty-second street police testified that the blotter of the station shows that Nugent was believed to be on his post in East Twenty-third street on the evenings that Shovelin says he met him near St. Mark's churchyard.

The summing-up on either side was long, but Judge Cowing a charge was brief and pointed. The jury deliberated until 9:30 last evening, and then were locked up for the night. It was rumored then that the jury stood eight to four for acquittal.

MISS LILLIE BRAND'S FRIENDS. A Letter from the Rev. Dr. Porter Read at the Trial of her Lover.

Justice Semler in Brooklyn yesterday continued the examination into the charge made by Miss Lillie Ella Brand, the organist of a church, against John E. Leviss of 1,230 Broadway, who, she avers, promised to marry her. The complainant was in court with a number of friends. In her cross-examination she test of friends. In her cross-examination she testified that her parents knew that Leviss was introduced to her with a view to making her his wife, and that they had no objections to the marriage. She was in school at the time she met Leviss, and would have graduated this spring. She was a member of the Rev. Dr. Robinson's church at Seventh and Grand streets, Brooklyn, where she played the organ and attended the Sunday school. She left school at Leviss's request. On the occasion of her visit of Coney Island with Leviss, she said she did not visit any dancing pavilion with him, but he paid for her supper, and she drank some beer with him.

The case was not concluded.

ASSAULT AND ROBBERY.

Three Cases of Garroting Sefore Justice Kilbreth in One Day.

In the Tombs Police Court yesterday, Detectives Handy and Fogarty accused William Lohman, a thick-set man, of assaulting and attempting to rob William Frazer of 161 West Fifty-first street. Mr. Frazer said that at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening, in West Broadway, near Duane street, Lohman seized him, choked him, and, after throwing him down, began to rob him. Detective Fogarity said that he saw Lohman pass Mr. Frazer twice before attacking him, and that Lohman was in the act of rebbing the heipless man when he was arrested. Justice Kilbreth committed the prisoner. When Lohman learned that he was to be held for trial, he turned upon Detective Handy and said, with an oath; "I'll kill you," at the same time striking the detective a blow on the head, Lohman was overpowered by the court policemen and taken to prison.

In the same court, Policeman Lesson accused Alexis Clane of assaulting and robbing Robert Williams of 459 Sixth avenue as he came out of a restaurant in the Bowery at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Williams identified Clane as one of two men who assaulted him and took away his watch. Clane was held.

Policeman Loornan heard cries of "Stop thief" in Vesey street, and found Walter James held a prisoner by several persons. James was committed for trial on a charge of assaulting and robbing J. F. Edrick. way, near Duane street, Lohman seized him,

A meeting of the survivors of the Anderson-ville and Labby prisons residing in this State was held yesterday at the office of J. W. Merrill, 80 Liberty street. Among those present were Col. George H. Laurence, J. W. Merritt of the Twenty-fourth Battery N. Y. Y., Col. Hastings, now assistant secretary of the Board of Health; Col. Decker, and James Quigley, now a sergeant in the police force. Dolle-force.

A committee, composed of Comrades Laurence, Walsted, and Maldwin, appointed at the last meeting to draw up by-laws, reported. The report was adopted. Mr. Merrill urged that the selection of officers for the society should be postponed until a future and larger meeting. There are nearly 1,000 eligible members in this State. he said. "We don't want them to think that we want to officer the society." An adjournment was had until Wednesday evening next.

I would never lend my assistance to an enterprise," he said, "which injured other people for its own gain and aggrandizement." The projectors of the enterprise are confident of success, and since its features have been made public, the Jastice says that the company has re-ceived applications for stock amounting to $150,000.

A Suit Against the City.

The Seventh Avenue Railroad Company has brought suit against the city to test the right of the municipal authorities to interfere with the use by the com pany of snow ploughs, scrapers, or sweeping machines Judge Doughne, in Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday granted a preliminary injunction forbidding such inter-ference.

The Bowdoln Alumni Dinner.

It is now understood that she rejected his suit. after which he went South for his health, but died. Miss Hovey considered herself the cause of his death, and was forever haunted by that reflection. A short time ago she related to her ing by a dark and rushing stream, she saw s coat with a single occupant whirled helplessly down until it balanced on the brink of a cata-ract. Its hapless passenger flung his arms wildly, and begged for rescue, and at the last moment turned upon her, revealing the face of her dead lover. This was never effaced from her mind, and she rapidly grew more melan-choly, until she took her own life.

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now protty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 it will be onducted as a newspaper written in the English ian guage and printed for the whole people.

As newspaper, Tax Sus believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its ling its daily make up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspa-per, and emoys an income which it is at all times pre-pared to spend liberally for the benefit of its renders of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buring and reading it. In its comments on men and affairs. Tax Sun believes that the only guide of policy should be common some in-spired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reasonat is, and will conlinue to be, absolutely independent or party, class clique organization, or interest. It is for all, but of news. will continue to praise what is good and repurshate what is good and repurshate what is good and repurshate what is language is to the point and plain, teyand the possibility of being misunds stood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It have in ustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pitter fools, and deplors the companys of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1890 to chartise the first class, instruct to see ond, and discountenance the third. All homest men. with honest convictions, whether sound or mistaken are its friends. And This See makes no better of a float the tright to its friends and about its friends who never occa-sion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which The Son will be conducted during the year to come. The year 1989 will be one in which no natriotic American can efford to close his eyes to mubile efforts It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the varying drait of public sentiment, will all hear dir and effectively upon the twenty-hard Presidential election, to be held in November Four 1987, ago next November, the will of the nation, at expressed at the poils, was thwarted by an Abunita the constitute, the print the sand benefit arise of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the error of 1870 be rejeated in 1880? The past of called a varie opened with a corrupt, extravegant, and modern Alministration in tremched at Washington. The Sow did sumething toward disloging the gang and breaking its power. The same ment are now intriguing to restore their leader and then where he places from which they were driven by the the digitation of the people. Will they succeed? The council rear will bring the anteners to three momentums questions. The disa will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are derecoped, and to exhibit them clearly and learneed?

and the principles of the Constitution against an excess era. The Six is prepayed to write a fruitful, instructive and entertaining theory of 1880.
